

Related Party / Inter-Company Transactions Policy

The company continuously monitor and assess intercompany transactions in order to maintain utmost transparency, observe an arms-length relationship between the Company and among its subsidiaries, in continuing compliance of all government regulations.